

DUNEDOO DUKE OF EDINBURGH PROGRAM

MAKES IT TO PRIME 7 NEWS

8 Students went to Dubbo on Wednesday the 16th November as part of the Schools Duke of Ed Skill and Community Enhancement section. Workshops were carried out at the Royal Flying Doctor Service and the Western Plains Cultural Centre. Students also visited the Red Cross Blood Centre where students were shown the procedures for giving blood once they are 16yrs of age and how one blood donation can help 3 people in need. Mr Constant was happy to show the students what is involved and once the nurses found his vein it took 10 minutes for his donation. The RFDS took the students through a mock snake bite and a heart attack casualty, aircraft flight simulator, the important role that RFDS provides to rural NSW and job opportunities. Prime 7 captured our visit and the nightly news went with a great story that the students featured in and promoted our small school to all of the Central West. The students creativity side was explored with a practical 'wire sculpture' workshop at the WPCC. They say art is an act of expressing feelings, thoughts and observations-it can also be frustrating. I am sure we all came away with a greater appreciation of the skills needed to transform material into an 'art piece'-a lot of practice, problem solving and patience!! Thanks to Paige Thomson, Elle Lane, Emma Bennetts, Beau Boyd, David Abbott, Michael Sweeney, Fallon Grima, James Stoddart and Mr Constant for the enthusiasm you showed on the day.

Duke of Ed

Royal Flying Doctor Service & Western Plains Cultural Centre

On Wednesday last week the Duke of Ed went over to Dubbo to the Rural Flying Doctors Service for a workshop. While we were doing the workshop the 7 news crew came to interview Paige and James. At the workshop we went into the flight simulator and we did resuscitation. And for the other part of the workshop we learnt how to treat a snake bite. We then went to the Blood bank and learnt about donating blood. Mr Constant donated blood while we were there. We then went to the Western Plains Cultural Centre and did a workshop on making wire sculptures, with all of us coming out with some pretty interesting animals.

We would like to thank Mr Constant and Sharon for taking us over to Dubbo and back. Michael Sweeney

Coolah Tops Camp/Hike

On Sunday the Duke of Ed headed off to Coolah tops for the exploration part of our certificate. We headed up with Mr Campbell and Sharon. We walked to the Cox Creek camping area and then went on to walk the grass tree track. We then set up camp at the Barracks Camp Ground for the night.

Sharon then took us on the bus to Norfolk Falls where we saw some amazing views of the waterfall which was quite a highlight.

After an extremely cold night we packed up our tents and walked the racecourse loop track which proved to be a lot longer than our mapping skills had calculated. The walk had some pretty amazing views. When we finished the walk and headed home, this was a very quiet trip home.

We would like to thank Mr Campbell and Sharon for taking us up to Coolah and organising this trip. We really appreciate all the work you did to make this trip possible. Emma Bennetts

Principal's Message

Hello everyone. It was pleasing to hear that most students took their end of year exams seriously and devoted time to studying at home, including learning certain facts off by heart and completing questions from practise papers. This should lead to an excellent understanding of the course work and fine results.

Student Reports are well underway with our teachers devoting many after-school hours to ensuring comments of high quality. It is important for parents to consider the teacher's comments, in the same way an employer would, as employers place great emphasis on this part of the report. Attitude, completion of homework, the grades for each outcome and the actual mark (Secondary reports), give a good all-round indication of your child's overall performance in each Key Learning Area (KLA). If your child's report shows an area that requires development, please don't hesitate to contact your child's teacher to discuss ways of improving their understanding. The Homework Centre is the most successful way of improving student understanding and performance, for it is here that individual tuition can take place, without the busy nature of the classroom.

Anyone who watched Channel Seven News last week would have seen our Duke of Edinburgh students being interviewed whilst visiting the Royal Flying Doctors' Service facility in Dubbo. Students enjoyed the emergency simulation in which they took part and learnt a great deal about medical emergencies and medical practitioners. Paige Thompson spoke very well in her interview and provided real insight into her understanding and appreciation of the day. Sharon Nott, of course, continued her inspirational leadership of the Duke of Ed program by organising another wonderful experience for the students, that may lead to them following a medical pathway when they leave school or just learn an emergency skill that may be very useful one day. Mr Constant, who also accompanied the students, agreed that the day was very rewarding for all concerned.

I had the pleasure of joining a number of Duke of Ed students and Sharon on the Coolah Tops hiking weekend last week. Students received a wonderful opportunity to test their hiking and camping skills, as well as their resilience, in a trek through some beautiful bush paths exposing creeks, ridges, waterfalls and a very photogenic environment. The 9km hike in to "the Barracks" camping area was tough with full packs and a range of hills to climb. It was very pleasant being greeted by the local kangaroo and her joey as we set up camp. Students were very efficient in setting the tents and organising dinner. A trip to Norfolk Falls later in the afternoon was enjoyed by everyone. The next day students packed their gear quickly and worked well as a team before hiking to the Pinnacles and that amazing view of the Liverpool Plains. Thanks once again to Sharon for her brilliant organisation and to all the students who went and showed what fine young people they are.

Year 7 and 8 enjoyed a Friday evening excursion to see "the Tales of Hans Christian Anderson", organised by Mrs Sams. They enjoyed the wonderful stories tied into a play, the acting and the songs. Students also enjoyed a nice meal at the Dubbo Sporties Club. This is an exciting experience for our students, many of whom have never been to the Dubbo Regional Theatre, let alone seen a live performance. Well done Mrs Sams for organising such an interesting venture and the supporting staff, Mrs Lane, Mel Whackett and Amanda Leeson for giving up their time to support students.

Congratulations need to be extended to Georgia Lane who was selected to attend a special Computer Programming Course to be conducted by the Mathematics Association of NSW. This was as a result of an excellent performance in an Online Coding Competition, as part of the Mathematics Challenge, that our students sat as part of the Gifted Mathematics program. Unfortunately Georgia will be unavailable to attend the course due to prior commitments with the Australian u/15 Squash team in Darwin. One of her fellow students may be offered the opportunity in her place.

It is really sad to hear that some of the new signs that have been developed for the Dunedoo Swimming Pool and the Golf Club as part of the Community Volunteering aspect of the Duke of Edinburgh Award have been vandalised. The signs were partly funded by our students and were well thought out and designed with student input. Sharon Nott, who devotes a great deal of time to supporting youth in our community, amongst the many other groups she volunteers time to support, is particularly upset by this brainless damage to things designed to support the respective organisations. If anyone knows anything about this destruction, could you please contact the school.

Mr Constant has just informed me that we have secured a commitment from the State Emergency Services to conduct another Cadet program in term 2, 2017, as part of the Duke of Ed program.

Enjoy your week!

Year 2/3: Hello Everyone, My name is Shelby McPherson (Miss Mac) and I'm currently completing my third year out of area practical experience here at Dunedoo. I have come from Maitland and currently studying my Bachelor of Primary Teaching with a discipline in Special Education at Newcastle University. I am enjoying working with Year 2/3 and Mr Kline and learning so much that I will use in my future career as a teacher. Year 2/3 are impressing me greatly with their commitment to making their production piece one for everyone involved to be extremely proud of. I hope you are as excited as I am to see Year 2/3 show us what they are made of. Not long until performance time, so get in quick and grab a ticket so you don't miss out on seeing the children at Dunedoo Central shine. If you are around anytime over the next two weeks, please feel very welcome to come and introduce yourself to me, as I am excited to meet all of you.

This is the last week of formal; homework for Year 2/3.

News topic for this week is 'You and your family are going on a trip. You are only allowed to pack 3 of your things. What would you take?' Shelby McPherson

Year 3/4: Hello everyone and welcome to Week 7! Well done to all the students in the class who have reached Level 3, 4 or 5 in ACE this year. The ACE reward days will be happening in the next week or two for students who have qualified – so stay tuned to Mrs Armstrong's announcements! Production! Production! Production! Production practice is ramping up now to the max. All students should have their costumes/clothing organised this week and preferably left at school. If you have costume issues please see me immediately. With less than two weeks until the show, now is the time to secure your ticket and lock in a chance to see your child(ren) perform. Mr. A Honeysett

Year 5/6: We missed our Year 6's last Wednesday as they experienced a day in the life of a high schooler. All students enjoyed the prepared activities, and the day was a success thanks to Mr Smith and his team. This will be a very busy week, with a number of things needing to be completed. A significant portion of our work this term has been on Personal Research Projects, which students have been working on both in class as well as being a major component of homework activities. The time has come to present these to peers! I am looking forward to seeing what each student has prepared, and will be marking these against specific criteria that was given to each student prior to commencement of work on these. Our class item for the whole school production is coming together nicely, and students are reminded they will need to wear dark clothing for their performance. Homework sheets were handed out today, and due in on Friday. Mrs. Georgia Shephard

DCS School To Work Program

In 2015 I was interested in doing anything to do with wool. I had done a tiny bit of rouseabouting and wanted to learn more. So I volunteered to help at the Speed Shear at the Dunedoo Show. About 2 months after the Dunedoo Show I did rouseabouting at the Dubbo Speed Shear. I found out about this through advertising from Dubbo Shearing Supplies. I took the initiative to ask about helping out!

At the 2016 Dunedoo Show I took part in the Speed Shear, which was my first ever attempt in a show-I was real nervous and I couldn't stop shaking and I let the sheep get the better of me, but in the end I got there! When school started in 2016 I began a School to Work Program in the Wool Industry. What I really wanted to do was get out of school and into the workforce but I was too young to leave school so I approached Mrs Fergusson and Mr Campbell about options and things I could do to further my knowledge and experience in the Wool Industry. I had to find someone who was willing to have me, so I approached Graeme Taylor— who is a local shearer. I started out 1 day a week learning what to do in the sheds. This entailed wool rolling, sweeping, penning up and picking fleeces up. I wanted to learn more so I took about 8 months learning to shear. This led to me shearing sheep at smoko!! Not long after this I started crutching and shearing sheep myself, doing four runs a day.

Because I was so interested I started looking at shearing schools. My determination to improve my skills led me to finding a TAFE course— Introduction to Wool Harvesting . It was an amazing course, I learnt a lot of skills that I never thought I would have. I have taken on board exercise and fitness, and living a healthy lifestyle to be more effective. Now, at the end of Year 10 I am determined to enter the Wool Industry and have found a more advanced course which I start on Monday 21st November!

I would like to thank Graeme Taylor for taking me on board and farmers who have let me work on their farms. I would also like to thank Dunedoo Central School, Mr Campbell, Mrs Lane and Mrs Fergusson for organising and providing so many opportunities.

This is a quote which now inspires me and when you find what you're looking for everything is good!
